

Revue De La Ville

A nuptial mass at the Cathedral of the Madeleine Wednesday morning, Miss Orpha Kingsbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury of this city, was wed to Dr. Stanley Thomas O'Malley. The ceremony was performed by Father Moran, formerly pastor of a church which the bride attended while studying in New York. A wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Utah. The cathedral was decorated with red peonies and ferns arranged about the altar, with its lighted candles. The bride wore a tailored suit of wood brown and a green and brown hat. She carried pink sweet peas and white roses. Her sister, Miss Ruth Kingsbury, the bridesmaid, wore a street costume of dark blue and carried red roses. William Huber of Kansas City was best man. The breakfast table was adorned with salmon colored sweet peas and ferns, arranged in two baskets. Covers were laid for sixteen. The place cards were hand painted with Japanese figures.

The couple left in the afternoon for Madison, Wis., and will motor from there to the O'Malley cottage on the Great Lakes. Later they will cross the lakes by steamer to Buffalo and will be at home in New York after July 1.

MISS IRENE McDONALD is being extensively entertained previous to her marriage to E. W. Christensen, June 25. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chamberlin entertained at a dancing party Thursday evening at their home on Sixth avenue, in honor of Miss McDonald and Mr. Christensen, Friday afternoon Mrs. Charles Solomon gave a kensington at her home on Fifth East street, in compliment to the bride. Miss Edna Kay and Miss Eva Kay will entertain the bridal party at luncheon Saturday afternoon at their home on East Eighth South street. Saturday evening Miss Emma Williams and Miss Mary Williams will give a party for the girl friends of the bride at their home, 40 J street.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Frank Margetts will entertain at a kensington. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Leroy Perry will give a tea for the bride at her home in the Ruby apartments. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. George B. Margetts will entertain in compliment to Miss McDonald and Mr. Christensen. Thursday afternoon, June 19, Miss Bae Williams will give a luncheon for the bride at the Hotel Utah. A kensington will be given Friday afternoon, June 20, by Mrs. W. B. Tracy at her home on Third East street. Saturday evening, June 21, Miss Amelia Margetts will give a dancing party for Miss McDonald and Mr. Christensen at her home on East Fourth South street. Sunday afternoon, June 22, the bride will entertain at her trousseau tea. Monday afternoon, June 23, Miss LaVaun Haymond will entertain at luncheon at her home, 217 East South Temple.

The wedding will take place Thursday, June 26, in the Salt Lake temple. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John G. McDonald, 124 Fourth East street. Miss Florence McDonald will be maid of honor, Miss Leroy Perry matron of honor, Miss Amelia Margetts and Miss Edna Kay bridesmaids; Miss Miriam Solomon and Miss Pearl Morrison flower girls and Melvin Christensen best man.

THE first graduating class, 56, of the Bryant Junior high school received diplomas Tuesday night at the Ladies' Literary club before a large gathering of friend and relatives.

An interesting and varied program was given, in which the music department played a prominent part with two selections by the orchestra and two songs by the glee club.

Oration were given on "The Past," "The Present," and "The Future," respectively by Miss Margaret Mackenzie, Herschel Lund and Bernard Yonkers.

Joy H. Johnson of the board of education was the principal speaker. The class was presented by J. H. Coombs, principal, to Dr. Ernest A. Smith, school superintendent, who awarded the diplomas.

Following is the complete list of the 1919 graduates Gordon Affleck, Frances Brown, Ruth Buzzo, George Bloomquist, Alice Boynton, Paul Braby, Francis Burton, Leonard Burton, Evelyn Christensen, Blanche Clegg, Catherine Carlston, Lloyd Conyers, Zella Callister, Anona Dover, Gerald Daynes, Dorothy Dayton, Roberta Dimick, Dolores Doble, Angus Erickson, Eyrick Eynon, Donald Gates, Edward Glauberger, Gladys Fike, Blair Hawkes, Lucile Hogman, Anita Jack, John Jack, Albert Kelson, Jack Lervill, Willifred Lowery, Herschel Lund, Allan Lipman, Jeanette Lovegran, Margaret Mackenzie, Le Rop Metters, Munro Naisbitt, Vilette Overly, Thelma Peake, Lawrence Pinnock, Kathleen Phelps, Elizabeth Pier, Seward Pierson, Lee Nicholson, Edmund Robins, Kenneth Rogers, Reed Rollo, Ivers Vaduer, Henry Schuring, Ruth Stanchfield, William Singer, Ralph Stevenson, Henry Schuring, Emilie Sweet, Dot Thatcher, Afton Williams, Franklin Wherry, Bernard Yankers.

THE marriage of Miss Loretta Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Sparks, to John H. Wood, took place Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. A reception followed at night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Sparks, on T street. The living room was decorated with pink and white roses arranged in an archway. Pink roses in a basket formed the centerpiece for the table. The bride wore a white George gown beaded and carried bride roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Loretta Sparks, who wore white crepe de chine and carried pink roses. Assisting in receiving were Mrs. George Eldredge, Mrs. Charles Pike and Mrs. Oliver Workoan. Young girl friends of the bride assisted in the dining room.

MISS DE ETTE McCHRYSTAL entertained Wednesday a party in honor of her guest, Miss Helen Sterns of Pasadena, and Miss Adelaide Lippman, who will leave soon for San Francisco for a visit. The guests included, besides the guests of honor, Mrs. Jackson McChrystal and Mrs. Phil Clark. Those bidden were Miss Sterns, Miss Lippman, Miss Gertrude Thomas, Miss Helen Case, Miss Ruth Farnsworth, Miss Josephine Richards, Miss Barbara Babcock, Miss Helen Sheets and Miss Kate Nelson.

WITH Miss Marion Whitney, a charming June bride, as guest of honor, Miss Priscilla Cartwright, Mrs. Herman J. Wells and Mrs. Lauren Gibbs entertained Wednesday at luncheon at the Hotel Utah. A silver basket of pink roses was the centerpiece for the table and small baskets containing old fashioned nosegays were at each plate.

The guests included besides the guest of honor, Mrs. Rex Williams, Mrs. Walter L. Felt, Mrs. Wendell Smoot, Mrs. Kenneth Purdy, Miss Esther Badger, Miss Helen Wells, Miss Lillian Wells and Miss Rosemarie Young. Bridge followed in the afternoon.

THE marriage of Miss Mary Robins and Wilfred A. Leonard took place at 7:30 Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Fitzpatrick, 812 Seventh East street. A reception followed. The bride was attended by Miss Ermgard Willey as bridesmaid and Mrs. Harold L. Lambourne as matron of honor. Earl Jenssch was best man.

THE marriage of Miss Ethel Guyman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Guyman of Orangeville, and Sergeant Fay Killian, recently discharged from the army, took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Neill, on South State street. The ceremony was performed by Bishop F. S. Tinney in the presence of the immediate relatives. The bride wore a handsome suit of gray cloth and carried a sheaf of bride roses.

THE I. A. Clayton home on B street and Seventh avenue was the scene of a beautiful garden tea Tuesday afternoon when Miss Mary Clayton entertained from 5:30 until 8 o'clock for Miss Alma Cannon, a bride of the month, and Mrs. Lauren Gibbs. Mrs. Robert Mitchell and Mrs. Glen McEwen recent brides. Assisting Miss Clayton in receiving her guests was her mother, Mrs. I. A. Clayton, and little Emily Cannon and Grace Clayton received the cards. The tea table was decorated with a basket of lovely June roses and those presiding were Mrs. Frank Whitney, Mrs. I. A. Clayton, Jr., Mrs. John Clawson, Mrs. Hooper Knowlton, Mrs. R. W. Burton, Mrs. Sidney Beatty, Miss Esther Badger and Miss Agnes Naisbet.

MISS Sarah Burton was the hostess at a luncheon Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burton, on East First South street, in honor of Miss Marian Whitney, a bride of next week. Pink and white was the color scheme, a silver basket of June roses centering the luncheon table and the ices and bonbons added to the effect of the rose motif. Miss Burton was assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. L. Burton, and Mrs. Frank E. Bagley. Covers were laid for Miss Whitney, Miss Lillian Wells, Miss Helen Wells, Miss Esther Badger, Miss Edna Williams, Miss Priscilla Cartwright, Miss Emily Grant, Miss Hazel Hill, Miss Margaret Felt, Miss Fulvia Ivins, Mrs. Walter Felt, Mrs. Rex Williams and Mrs. R. V. Derrah.

THE marriage of Miss Lois Walton and Lawrence Latimer will take place June 18 in the Salt Lake temple. A reception will follow in the evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Walton, 100 West Thirty-third South street. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Latimer en-

SALT LAKE THEATRE—Special
3 Nights Starting Monday, June 16, Mat. Wed.

"'Ullo! 'ere's a 'it"

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn present

DeWOLF HOPPER in

"The Better 'Ole"

A Comedy with Music

By Captain Bruce Bainsfather and Captain Arthur Elliot

With a Distinguished Cast and Chorus of Singers and Dancers

NOT A MOTION PICTURE.

A fragment from France in two explosions, seven splinters and a short gas attack.

The Season's Greatest Sensation.

Prices: Evenings, 50c to $2.00. Matinee, 50c to $1.50.